Homework Autumn 2 2024 Year 3 and 4

In this Topic, the children will be learning about how children's lives have changed, why poor children in Tudor and Victorian times had to work and the types of jobs they had to do.

We will be thinking about the big question: How Have Children's Lives Changed?

Research

We will be learning about why Victorian children from a poor family had to work.

Your task is to research the different types of jobs the children had to do. Then focus on one job and use your research to write a diary for a day in the life of a Victorian child at work.

What would it have been like? What jobs did they have to do? How do you think they would have felt?

Creative

In Victorian times, poor children had to make their own toys eg dolls made out of clothes pegs.

Your task is to research the different types of toys that Victorian children would play with. Choose one and design and make your own Victorian toy for a child.
