

Captain Cook

Activate Prior Knowledge

EY

- Life at sea, pirates, the oceans, visit to the seaside.
- Understanding their own families past and history
- Links to local places they have visited.
- Explorers: Space travel
- Exploring different types of transport

KS1

- Locate and name the continents and Oceans on a World Map
- Identifying hot and cold areas of the world in relation to the Equator and the North and South Poles
- Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally
- Use different types of evidence and discuss reliability (Great Fire of London).
- Significant historical events, people and places in their own locality – Grace Darling

KS2

Links to Future Learning

- Location and features of countries (Australia)
- Hot and cold regions (North and South Pole)
- Local history – Romans, Victorians
- Explorers: Space – First people to the moon
- Explain how the people and events have influenced life today
- Describe connection and contrasts between the aspects of history
- Understand how the past is constructed from a range of sources, link sources and make comparisons.

Hook into a Book

Knowledge

Locational

I understand which countries and continents Captain Cook visited.

I understand where these countries are in relation to the UK.

Geography Skills and Fieldwork

I can use maps, atlases and globes to locate the UK, Australia, New Zealand and Tahiti.

I can use simple compass directions to describe the location of these countries.

Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally.

I understand the historical significance of Captain Cook's work.

I can recount stories about Captain Cook.

Significant historical people in your own locality

I know that Captain James Cook was born in Marton, Middlesbrough.

Historical Interpretations

I can use stories about Captain Cook to find out about the past.

I know there are different types of evidence to find out about the past and talk about how reliable they are.

Vocabulary

Captain	navigation	Australia	Adventure
Endeavour	Resolution	Discovery	voyage
Australia	New Zealand	Tahiti	Arctic Circle
Botany Bay	botany	astronomy	artefact

Why is Captain Cook a significant person?

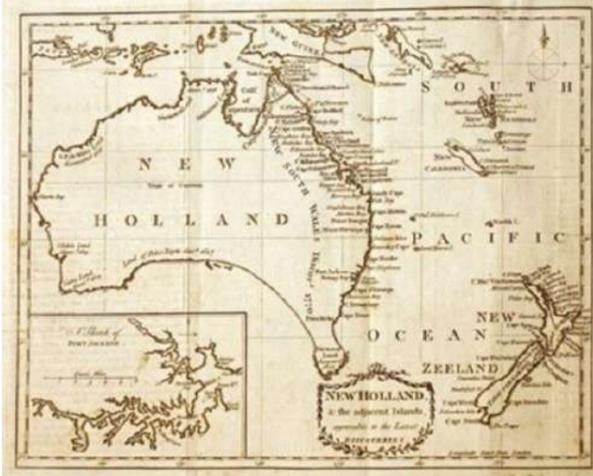

What do you think life was like for the crew on board?

How do you think the native people felt about Captain Cook?

Location Knowledge

I understand which countries and continents Captain Cook visited.
I understand where these countries are in relation to the UK.

Captain Cook visited Australia, New Zealand, Hawaii, Tahiti and attempted to cross the Arctic Circle.
Prior to Captain Cook's first voyage, there was only a small part of Australia which had been mapped.

Significant historical people in our locality

On Captain Cook's first voyage, he sailed on the HMB Endeavour.

He gave his crew sauerkraut to eat which stopped them from getting scurvy (a disease that can kill you).

His mapping of Australia, meant the British could settle in Australia 18 years later.

Knowledge and Understanding of Events, People and Changes in the Past

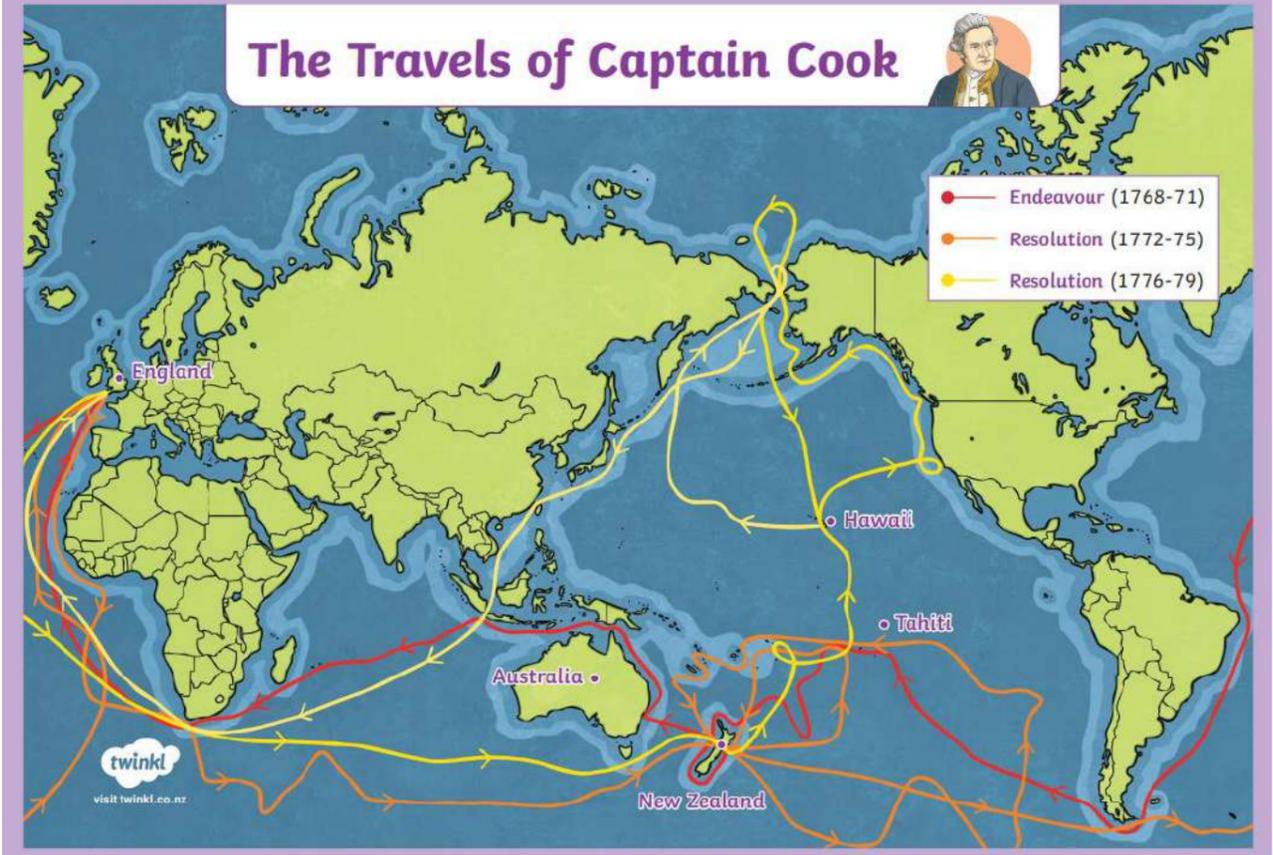

I can retell the story of Captain Cook's first voyage

Scan the QR code to see the book we are reading about Captain Cook's first voyage.

Physical and Human Geography

I can use maps, atlases and globes to locate the UK, Australia, New Zealand and Tahiti.
I can use simple compass directions to describe the location of these countries.

North, South, East and West
Never Eat Shredded Wheat

Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally. Significant historical people in our locality

I know that Captain James Cook was born in Marton, Middlesbrough.
I understand the historical significance of Captain Cook's work.

Captain Cook was born in Marton, Middlesbrough in 1728. He was a British explorer, navigator, cartographer, and captain in the British Royal Navy, famous for his three voyages between 1768 and 1779 in the Pacific Ocean and to Australia in particular.

He made detailed maps of Newfoundland prior to making three voyages to the Pacific, during which he achieved the first recorded European contact with the eastern coastline of Australia and the Hawaiian Islands, and the first recorded circumnavigation of New Zealand.

Historical Interpretations

Observe and use pictures, photographs and artefacts to find out about the past
Explain that there are different types of evidence and sources that can be used to help represent the past

Children will look at different images, artefacts and eye witness accounts about Captain Cook and discuss how reliable they are.